AQUEDUCT GOING IMPROVES

MONTRESOR IS AIDED BY GOOD LUCK AND DEFEATS GAINER AND OTHER CRACKS.

Odom Sends Two Winners to the Post-Brizz Reported Sold for a Big Sum-Flying Fairy to Be Retired.

New York, July 9.—Perfect racing weather prevailed at Aquedact today and the attendance showed quite an increase over that of the previous few days. The third and fourth races attracted the most attention during the afternoon, and both of them resulted in extra good contests. The fourth, which was won by Montresor, was marred to a certain extent by the tactics of jockey C. Turner on Pebbles, who seemingly tried to ride every horse in the race. Pebbles went into an easy lead while going down the backstretch, but when Buckhorn made his move on the far turn he was forced out by Pebbles. Then in the stretch Gainer was kept in close quarters until in the final eighth, when Pebbles started to bear out. This cost him whatever chances he may have had. At the end Montresor was the winner over the fast-coming Gainer, which had met with much interference.

The going on the backstretch was fairly good, but next to the inner rail was still slow and this perhaps encompassed the defeat of Harry Shaw in the third race. Harry Shaw gained a good lead in the early running and turned for home running easily, but the horse, which is strictly a rail runner, tired after his efforts in the heavy going and was passed by Blue Thistle in the final sixteenth. The latter showed improvement over his last race at Jamaica, which race led to Frank M. Taylor being fined $200 by the stewards for criticizing the horse's showing on that occasion.

George M. Odom, who is training a public stable, saddled the first two winners in Sprint, a recent acquisition of the Mizgah Stable, and Unele Jimmie. Both horses ruled favorites and won easily. The victory of Sprint was followed by an unlooked for incident, for she stepped in a hole after the race, unseated Buxton and then ran away a mile and a half. Aside from striking herself, she was uninjured.

Uncle Jimmie was the medium of a run-up after his victory, G. Alexandra advancing him from $300 to $800 and securing him.

Had Harry Shaw been able to win the third it would have made three straight winners f

W. G. Yanke has put in an appearance at Aqueduct.

T. Henry will ride on the New York tracks for James MacManus.

Jockey M. J. O'Brien will do some of the riding for James Butler's stable.

Jockey Korb, who is in France, is expected to return to this country at once.

Harry Lauder was shipped to Fort Eric from Benning by J. F. Sweeney to A. R. Bresler, who will campaign him on the Canadian circuit.

Former trainer Richard Bowers, who has not hed a license for several seasons, has been denied all privileges at Canadian Racing Associations' courses.

That Roamer's recent races have not dulled his speed was shown when the son of Knight Errant worked Thursday morning at Aqueduct. He covered a mile in 1:38%, and then finished out a mile and an eighth easily in 1:52.

Kay Spence has arrived at Belmont Park for the Empire City meeting with Hodge, Furlong and other horses, and W. Perkins is there with Gipsey George and others. C. Hunt accompanied the Spence stable and F. Judy the Perkins shipment.

Work-outs at Aqueduct on a muddy track this morning were:

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

The French official war statement of yesterday said: "From the sea to the River Aisne there was reported last night only one artillery engagement, in the vicinity of Souchez; this was quite spirited. There was also a slow but continued bombardment of Arras, and a vicient cannonade between the River Oise and the River Aisne, on the plateau of Nouvron. In the Champagne district there was an encounter with mines, and in the Argonne there were rifle and cannon exchanges, but no important infantry engagements. Between Fey-en-Haye and the forest of Le Pretre French troops, by the use of hand grenades, were successful in retaking about 150 yards of the trenches lost by us July 4. At Croix-des-Carmes the enemy delivered an attack yesterday evening along a front of 350 yards. This action followed a bombardment by aeroplanes, which threw down torpedoes, and the hurling of burning Hauids. After having been successful in galuing a footing in our first line of defenses, the Germans were driven out of these positons by an immediate counter attack. They were able to main-

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN MONEY-WINNING HORSES OF 1915

It is quite interesting to note that, although the half-way station in the racing of 1915 has been passed, there are as yet but three horses which have won $10,000. Moreover, it is due to having won the three main events of Kentucky racing that Royal II., Borrow and Regret have acquired this dignity. However, quite a number of horses are within striking distance of the $10,000 line and many rich stakes are awaiting decision, so in the nature of racing there must soon be accessions to this select list. Last year fifteen horses won $10,000 or more. So far only eight two-year-olds have taken memberships in the list of thirty leading winners, but Saratoga racing provides many opulent stakes for the youngsters, which must bring newcomers to the list. To date the records of the thirty chief money winners of the year are:

tain themselves only in some few of our most advanced trenches. In the Vosges, in the region of Bande-Sapt, at Fontenelle, we gained a notable success. After having driven the enemy from that portion of our old positions which they captured from us on the twenty-second of June, we took possession of all the defensive positions of the Germans reaching from the hill to the southeast of Fontenelle as far as the road running from Launois to Moyen-Moutier. This total gain represents an advance of 709 yards along a front of 600 yards."

A Petregrad dispatch of yesterday to London says: "The Austrian army under Archduke Joseph Ferdinand, hurriedly pushing forward on the high road from Krasnik to Lubbin under the impression that the Russians were in full retreat, lost touch with Field Marshall von Mackensen's army on the right. The Russians, who were nearer than the archduke supposed, took advantage of his blunder in allowing the flank of his force to be uncovered. The aim of this Austrian force was to break through the Russian front, and success seemed almost within its grasp. It dld not know that a wood beside the road along which it was advancing was full of Russians. The archduke was vigorously attacked with disconcerting unexpectedness and lost no fewer than 15,000 men. Grand Duke Nieholas has got the enemy into the same positions strategicaly as he occupied last August, 'says the correspondent, 'but with this difference—then the enemy had all the advantages of the smiling land, rich villages and great estates throughout his line of march, while today the enemy is in a desert ravaged by eleven months of warfare, with the roads cut up beyond all semblance of highways, while towns and villages are mere piles of ashes. The task of feeding and munitioning 3,000,000 of men 200 miles from their base must appall even the German organization, yet the enemy anyst continue to advance, for a pause or backward step spells ruin. Altogether matters look most promising for the Russians."

A dispatch of yesterday from Zurich, Switzerland, says: "Doctors and nurses of the American Red Cross serving in Vienna have been forced to appeal for protection to the Austrian Red Cross authorities. Because they speak English in the street cars and other public places, the Americans have been undergoing many painful experiences at the hands of the Vienna public. The Austrian Red Cross authorities have issued a public notice protesting against such treatment of Americans."

L. Gentry, the western rider, arrived with the Respess horses and will do the riding for the stable at Windsor.

Other arrivals yesterday included the stable of P. J. Miles, embracing Falcada, Cordie F., King Box, Caro Nome and Sigma Alpha.

E. J. O'Connell brought the consistent filly Carrie Grme, winner of several races on Kentucky tracks, Margaret E. and Welcor. Jockey H. Stearns came along with the O'Connell stable.

The two-year-olds Lady Mildred and Oaklawh Belle, owned by William Strauss of Grand Rapids, came in charge of H. Sargent. Both of the Strauss' inveniles are eligible to the Edenwold Stakes.

Bob McMillen brought Jack Kavanaugh and Joe Stevie, while Frank Brown was in charge of Martin Casca, Queenie Dunn, Birka and Illuminator, Dr. S. Pitcher of Detroit, who purchased the two-year-olds Jess and Method at the recent sales at Latonia, arrived home from Cincinnati yesterday afternoon. During his absence from Detroit Dr. Pitcher attended the meetings at Louisville and Latonia and declares that both were big successes. He was much impressed with the mutuel system of wagering and says that the mutuels will bring about a big improvement at Windsor, Dr. Pitcher's colors will be seen at the Windsor meeting, as he intends to race his recent purchases there. M. B. Trowbridge of Detroit is associated with him in the ownership of the horses, which will be trained by William Smith, who formerly managed the stables of C. F. Brownfield and other owners.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

John Fay of Cincinnati has gone east to enjoy the racing on the metropolitan tracks for the rest of the month. He plans to spend the month of August at Saratoga.

Cock o' the Walk, one of the three-year-old stars of 1913, is on the track again after a period in the stud. The son of Peep o'Day took his first fast work for the season when he turned three-eighths of a mile in 39 at Aqueduct Wednesday.

John W. Schorr, one of the foremost owners of the racing thoroughbreds in America, passed through Buffalo Thursday on his way from Kentucky to Saratoga, whither his horses have preceded him. Mr. Schorr is making the trip by motor.

Trainer Kendall Marlman, who was taking the orses Alston and Greenwood from Latonia to Fortarie, sustained injuries while on a train which was derailed by the storm. So far as could be by his relatives, his injuries are not serious So far as could be learned

At the Latonia track the only person injured was Jack Brown, the apprentice rider for the E. R. Bradley stable. He was injured by the flying debris, but not seriously. Two of the dismantled stables were the large barns containing 300 stalls each. Another was the large Bradley stable.

Emerald Gem, the erratic post actor that Lewis W. Garth secured from F. J. Coleman, will shortly be seen in the steeplechase field, her education having commenced at Fort Eric this week. The case is somewhat similar to that of Chester Krum, also a bad actor at the post. He has developed into a useful timber-topper.

Secretary Edwards, of the Metropolitan Jockey Club, has announced that the Jamaica track will be kept open for horsemen until August I. W. R. Mizell has wired for accommodations there for eleven horses, including Robert Bradley. This stable will go on to Saratega toward the latter end of the month, it is probable.

H. C. Hallenbeck has no eligibles in his stable for the Futurity this year, but this does not mean he will not be represented in the two-year-old classic at Belmont Park. Trainer Ed Heffner is on the lookout for a likely candidate for the Futurity, and it is quite possible he will have at least one to sent to the post on the opening day of the Westchester Association's Autumn meeting.

Margins-Track Gossip.

Fort Erie, Ont., July 9.—E. B. Elkins' Dr. Larrick, a recent arrival from Latonia, accounted for the handicap at three-quarters that served as the feature race of the program offered by the Niagara Racing Association today. The race brought out a field of a half dozen smart sprinters and, despite the deep and lumpy track, a stirring contest was furnished, in which Dr. Larrick beat the favorite, Back Bay a nose. All of the six starters had some sort of chance at one stage or other of the race. Back Bay sprinted into a long lead in the first eighth, but when Garner brought The Widow Moon up while rounding the far turn, Metcaff took Back Bay up, evidently with the intention of giving him a breathing spell. Then when The Widow Moon quit in the homestretch Back Bay again took the lead. He tired, however, right at the end and Dr. Larrick just managed to get up in time to beat him by a nose in the final stride.

The sport during the afternoon was marked by close finishes. The race that called for maiden jockeys also furnished an exciting finish, and the winner of this race, Patience, just got up in time to beat Astrologer.

The conditions of the third race called for Canadian-foaled horses and the winner turned up in Garish Sun, which beat Gartley a head after a long and hard stretch drive in which the two fought it out head and head. Peggy L. barely beat Sonny Boy in the fifth race after a desperate drive in which both Taplin and young McDermott showed to good advantage.

both Taplin and young McDermott showed to good advantage.

Several stables left this morning for Windsor, among them those of H. Giddings, Al Austin and J. E. Seagram.

Trainer Barry Littlefield left for New York on receipt of the news of the death of his father.

Al Austin left the plater Salon at Fort Erie in charge of T. J. Shannon. The latter will ship the horse in his owner, E. F. McCoy.

Abbotsford pulled up lame after a work-out this morning and was excused by the stewards from starting in the sixth race.

W. Keating and O. W. Deppler were arrivals starting in the sixth race.

W. Keating and O. W. Deppler were arrivals from Latonia. Keating shipped his stable from Keatucky to Windsor.

H. G. Bedwell has decided to ship his horses from here to Hamilton, where they will remain until the return of racing at that point. Mr. Bedwell will leave for Laurel, Md., Saturday night to look over the horses he has turned out at his farm. Jockey Taplin will superintend the shipment of the Bedwell horses to Hamilton. He will probably go to Windsor to ride the two-year-old King Neptune in a stake.

Harry Shannon will ship the E. E. Peck stable from here to Hamilton.

E. L. A., New York. In cases of dead heats, where mutuel betting is employed the reductions usually made in such instances under bookmaking practices have already been made at the track under the rule by which the value of the tickets is computed. Consequently there should be no further reductions in settlements.

GREWSOME SPECTACLE AT THE WRECK.

Cincinnati, O., July 9.—When E. R. Bradley, of Lexington, Ky., and W. W. Barden, of Nashville, Tenn., arrived Friday at the scene of the wreck in Terrace Park and saw the mangled and mud-carcusted bodies of their blooded race horses scattered in grotesque attitudes along the right of way of the Pennsylvania railroad, they could not keep back their tears. The turfmen said that the combined value of the dead animals was $50,000, but that the mere loss of the money was nothing to the sense of personal loss which they felt they had suffered. The racers that were killed were the stars of their stables and held in their veins the blood of famous sprinters.

Darden identified Dortch, valued at $5,000; Little Father, $3,500, and Greenhorn, $1,500. Mr. Bradley identified Brig's Sister and Blood Test, the first of which was valued at $5,000 and the latter at $4,500. Brick and Mortar, worth $1,500, and Bundle Bay, $1,500, owned by Mr. Hurley, also was identified. The owners of White Wool, Flizgerald, Messenger and another horse, not yet identified, have not been heard from.

The following horses, which were injured, were brought to Cincinnati Friday from the scene of the wreck: Bars and Stars, Bessie N., Blind Baggage, Boy Smith and a paddock pony, all belonging to Bradley, Margaret D. and a gray pony belonging to Barden, and two other horses, believed to be Red Coat and Bell Boy. Gabrio is still missing.

Bradley. Margaret D. and a gray pony belonging to Darden, and two other horses, believed to be Red Coat and Bell Boy. Gabrio is still missing.

Without adding anything more to the list of names of the horses killed and injured at Terrace Park, the Cincinnati Enquirer of yesterday said:

"A wooden horse car was next to the engine. The wind seems to have centered its force on this car, and a steel car just behind it. Both were dragged seventy-five yards. The wooden car was wrenched loose and thrown down an embankment twenty-five feet high. The steel car was thrown on its side. The rest of the train was derailed, but the only loss of life occurred in the wooden car.

"There were thirteen men and thirteen horses in this ear, according to one of the stable men, and when it stopped falling men and horses were shuffled together like cards. The roof was shattered. Mortally wounded animals lashed out with their hoofs in every direction in the dense darkness, kicking other horses and men.

"Looking through the hole in the car the men saw Bennie Eberson, of Louisville, a white stable man, lying under the body of a dead horse. Eberson recognized them, smilling faintly. The smile was still there when a big racer, pinioned in the wreckage, crushed the man's chest with one blow of his hoof. Eberson had also been disemboweled. The two negroes were mangled by hoofs.

"Other stablemen tell of miraculous escapes. How any of them escaped is considered wonderful. Walter Hurley, in charge of Brick and Mortar, Belle of All and Bundle Day, said:

"It was enough to break the heart of a horsemen. The first hing I knew I was lying on the top of a pile of horses. I was kicked several times, but I knew they didn't mean it. A wreck like that makes a human being go crazy, so what can you expect of a horse?

"How roosters, E. R. Bradley's mascots, and Tilie Hurley's dog, emerged from the wreck unscathed, Gabrio was cut and bruised and escaped from his car. Gabrio strolled down a turnpike, where he was found at surnies, nibbling grass as thoug owners.

"If the train had gone 100 yards further east it would have been sheltered by a deep cut in the

Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. DR. LARRICK was outrun until rounding the far turn, from where he moved up rapidly and outgamed BACK BAY after disposing of THE WIDOW MOON. BACK BAY showed the most early speed, but was taken under restraint while rounding the stretch turn, then moved up gamely in the final eighth, but tired right at the finish. PARDNER closed up with a rush after being taken to the outside when entering the homestretch. RECOIL finished well. THE WIDOW MOON took the lead on the last turn, but quiteedly y. Overweights—Dr. Larrick,  $3\frac{1}{2}$  pounds; Pardner,  $2\frac{1}{2}$
